

It's Time for a CLAMBAKE

What: Suburban Ski Club's Annual Clambake

When: Saturday, September 16, 2017 at 1:30 PM
(Clambake to be served about 3:30 PM)

Where: Home of Ed & Mary Ellen Noss; 12075 State
Route 700; Hiram, OH 44234

Menu: A Dozen Steamed Clams; Clam Broth & Drawn Butter; New England Clam Chowder; Herb Roasted Chicken; Corn on the Cob; Roasted Red Skin Potatoes; Cole Slaw; Rolls & Butter; Desserts and Beverages (including beer and wine). Price: $35.00

ADD A STEAK: a Rib Eye Steak from a local Hiram butcher will be grilled to order on our own grill by a celebrity chef at an additional cost of $10.00

Directions: Hiram is not as far as some might think. It is approximately 30 min. from the Rt. 422 EAST Exit off I 271. Follow 422 East, crossing LaDue Reservoir. Four miles East of LaDue, at traffic light at top of hill, turn right (South) on State Route 700. Drive 4.2 miles. The Noss home is on the right (a 6 mile post is on left opp. driveway). Green & white balloons on right mailbox.

Please reserve your spot: Fill out the form below and mail with your check payable to Suburban Ski Club to: Ed & Mary Ellen Noss; 12075 State Route 700; Hiram, OH 44234; Telephone: (330) 569-3170; Email: lpdptr@gmail.com

Note: The deadline to give the caterer a final count is September 9th. If your mailed reservation will not reach Hiram by that date, please call or Email.
