Paganella, Italy: Saturday, March 2 through Sunday, March 10, 2024

Openings: 36
Skier Base Price: $2127[1]   Non-Skier Base Price: $1893[1] Add Airfare: $1276   (Single Room Supplement: $880)
Lift Ticket: Included in Skier Base Price
Trip Leader: Marcia McLane (614) 270-5319
                  Allen McLane   (614) 313-1909

Register for Paganella and Venice

Venice Post trip: Sunday, March 10 through Wednesday, March 13

Base Price: $643[1]   (Single Room Supplement Add: $351)

March finds us flying to Italy to ski the Paganella Ski Resort in Italy: Paganella Ski Areas.

Paganella is in the Trentino area of the Dolomites and is a training resort for the Norwegian and US ski teams.

We will be staying at the 3-Star Hotel Cristallo, which is within walking distance to the gondola.

Our trip includes:
- Breakfast and Dinner Daily at the Hotel Cristallo in Paganella
- Ski Base Pricing includes Full week (including night) Ski Pass
- Two Wine Tastings
- One night of skiing with a Gala Dinner at the Restaurant Dosson
- One Happy Hour at Restaurant Dosson
- One Lunch at La Ronda
- Visit to Downtown Trento
- Day trip to Garda Lake (Boat Ride Extra)
- Non-Skier Base package includes all the above except Ski Pass. Additionally, Non-skiers will be provided with 3 Gondola runs to reach restaurants for organized activities on the mountain

Our Post trip will be to world-famous Venice.
- We will be staying at the 4-star Hotel Principe, with breakfast included, in the historic Cannaregio district.
- Hotel is located a few steps from the S. Lucia station and minutes from the public vaporetto dock to reach all parts of the city.
- Hotel is also close to the main Venetian points of interest allows guests to get around the streets and districts on foot, admiring charming historic views.
- Hotel is just 20 minutes from Piazza San Marco
- Breakfast Daily in at the Hotel Principe in Venice

Fun fact about Venice: The City rests on 118 islands, separated by 150 canals.

[1]Base Price does not include Airfare